DAY ONE – WELCOME TO SCOTLAND

Morning/Afternoon

Arrival in small groups on various flights, welcomed at Edinburgh Airport by Andrew (wearing his kilt!!) and enjoy private luxury transfers to The Balmoral Hotel in the city for a welcome lunch/afternoon tea.

Guests will then board the private chartered Belmond Royal Scotsman train at Edinburgh Waverley Station and travel north to Gleneagles Station in the Highlands, enjoying a luxury dinner on board with some traditional Scottish entertainment.

Evening

Arrive at Gleneagles Station where coaches await for the short transfer to Gleneagles Resort for check in and relaxation.

DAY TWO – JOURNEY TO THE HIGHLANDS

Morning

Following breakfast at leisure there will be a private business meeting in The Drawing Room at Gleneagles.

A relaxed lunch in the The Birnam Brasserie will complete the mornings work.

Afternoon

Guests will split in to smaller groups to take part in a range of private activities across the resort such as Golf, 4x4 off-road driving, Fishing and Gun Dog Handling.

Evening

Private transfer onboard a vintage bus to Glenturret Distillery for a private tour, whisky tasting and Scottish dinner.

DAY THREE – CAPITAL CITY CULTURE

Morning/Afternoon

After breakfast the guests will check out of the hotel and transfer to Edinburgh city centre.

The Coach will drop guests at pre-determined points based on the activity they have selected, with guests coming together for lunch at The Dome in the afternoon.

- Private Rib Boat sailing on the Firth of Forth
- Private Tour of Edinburgh Castle & The Palace of Holyroodhouse.
- Guided walking tour to the top of Arthurs Seat – Edinburgh's own extinct volcano!

Check in to the Waldorf Astoria Edinburgh – The Caledonian Hotel. A traditional Scottish outfit awaits each guest in their room for this evenings dinner.

Evening

Personal guides will meet the group in hotel reception and lead them on a spooky ghost tour of the Old Town district of Edinburgh as you make your way to the evenings dinner venue.

A private dinner in the historic Caves in old Edinburgh followed by a traditional ceilidh with bagpipes and dancing will complete a magical day.

Return coach transfer to Hotel.

DAY FOUR – EXPLORING THE EAST COAST

Morning / Afternoon

A fleet of luxury Range Rovers and Land Rover Discoveries will be lined up outside the hotel where the group will embark on a self drive tour out of the city and in to beautiful East Lothian and the coast.

A stop en route at Tantallon Castle for an al fresco refreshment where the group will be surprised by Scottish clan fighters Battling on the castle ramparts!

Lunch will then be taken in the beautiful Scottish country house, Greywalls, over looking the world famous Muirfield Golf Course.

Coaches will then transfer the group back to the hotel after lunch.

Evening

The final nights dinner will be a spectacular affair on board what was the Queens private yacht – The Royal Yacht Britannia berthed on the Edinburgh waterfront.

DAY FIVE – A FOND FAREWELL

Private farewell Lunch

The guests will check out of the Hotel and transfer 35 minutes to Carlowrie Castle for a morning of activities (Falconry, Archery & Laser Clays) followed by a private lunch in the Castle Orangery.

The guests will have the Castle exclusively and it is located a short 15 minutes transfer from Edinburgh Airport which is ideal for guest departure flights.

Afternoon

Onwards transfer to Edinburgh Airport for departure flights.
